PUBLISHERS NOTE

The information in this Directory is gathered by an actual door to door canvass and is compiled in a way to insure maximum accuracy.

The publishers cannot and do not guarantee the correctness of all information furnished them nor the complete absence of errors or omissions, hence no responsibility for same can be or is assumed.

The publishers earnestly request the bringing to their attention of any inaccuracy so that it may be corrected in the next edition of the Directory.

INTRODUCTION
AND
GENERAL INDEX

HILL DIRECTORY COMPANY, publishers of Southeastern Directories, present to subscribers and the general public, this, the latest edition of the Winston-Salem City Directory. (In all, the HILL DIRECTORY COMPANY and its affiliated companies publish more than 1,400 City, County, State and National Directories).

Confidence in the growth of Winston-Salem's industry, population and wealth, and in the advancement of its civic and social activities, will be maintained as sections of this Directory are consulted, for the Directory is a mirror truly reflecting Winston-Salem to the world.

The enviable position occupied by HILL's Directories in the estimation of the public, has been established by rendering the best in Directory service. With an unrivaled organization, and having had the courteous and hearty cooperation of the business and professional people and residents, the publishers feel that the result of their labors will meet with the approval of every user, and that the Win-Winston-Salem City Directory will fulfill its mission as a source of authentic information pertaining to the city.

Four Major Departments

The four major departments are arranged in the following order:—

I. THE BUYERS' GUIDE constitutes the first major department of the Directory, printed on yellow paper. In the first section of this department, grouped under appropriate headings, are included the advertisements and business cards of firms and individuals desiring to make a complete presentation of their products or services. Following this is the Classified Business Section, which embraces a list of the names and addresses of all business and professional concerns of the city, arranged in alphabetical order under appropriate headings—a catalog of all the activities of the city. The Buyers' Guide represents reference advertising at its best, and merits the attention of all buyers and sellers seeking sources of supply or markets for goods. In a busy and diversified city like Winston-Salem, the necessity of having this kind of information up-to-date and always immediately available, is obvious. The Directory is the common intermediary between buyer and seller, and plays an important role in the daily activities of the commercial, industrial and professional world.

II. THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES of residents, business and professional concerns is the second major department, printed on white paper. This is the only record in existence that aims to show the name, marital status, occupation and address of each adult resident of Winston-Salem, and the name, official personnel, nature and address of each firm and corporation in the city.

III. THE DIRECTORY OF HOUSEHOLDERS, INCLUDING STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE is the third major department, printed on green paper. In this section, the numbered streets are arranged in numerical order, followed by the named streets in alphabetical order; the numbers of the residences and business concerns are arranged in numerical order under the name of each street, and the names of the householders and concerns are placed opposite the numbers. The names of the intersecting streets appear at their respective crossing points on each street. Special features of this section are the designation of owner-occupied homes, the listing of telephone numbers, new householder symbols, and Zip Codes.

IV. THE NUMERICAL TELEPHONE DIRECTORY is the fourth major department, printed on blue paper.

Municipal Publicity

The Directory reflects the achievements and ambitions of the city, depicting in unbiased terms what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a business location, as a manufacturing site, and as an educational center. To broadcast this information, the publishers have placed copies of this issue of the Directory in Directory Libraries, where they are readily available for free public reference, and serve as perpetual and reliable advertisements of Winston-Salem.

The Winston-Salem Out-Of-Town City Directory Library

Through the courtesy of the publishers of the Winston-Salem City Directory, a Directory Library is maintained in the offices of the Greater Winston-Salem Chamber Of Commerce, for free reference by the general public. This is one of over 800 Directory Libraries installed in cities and towns throughout the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico through the courtesy of your publisher.

The publishers appreciatively acknowledge the recognition by those progressive business and professional people who have demonstrated their confidence in the City Directory as an advertising medium, with assurance that it will bring a commensurate return.

Offices of the Greater Winston-Salem Chamber Of Commerce, located in the James Gordon Hanes Community Center Building.

History

Rich and varied is the history of Winston-Salem, for the city of today is the product of two centuries of constructive, planned growth.

In 1752-53, a small group of Pennsylvania Moravians, a Protestant denomination of Bohemian origin, carefully selected and bought a large tract of land in Piedmont Carolina at the three forks of the Yadkin River. They named the tract "Wachovia" after the Austrian estates of Count Nicholas Louis Von Zinzendorf, an early protector-patron of the sect. Two settlements were established, Bethabara in 1753, and Bethania in 1759. In 1766, a new settlement was carefully laid out in the center of the Wachovia tract and built according to definite plans. The tranquility-loving Moravians named their new town Salem, meaning "peace."

The small town grew rapidly under the care of the industrious fathers. A water system was established and dwellings, stores, and shops built. Tobacco was even then an important crop. The fathers consecrated a graveyard, "God's Acre," and founded a girls' school which has developed into the Salem Academy and College of today.

The Revolutionary War brought to the thriving town Nathaniel Green's soldiers, and in 1781 Cornwallis passed through Salem. The years after the war until the middle of the 19th Century were marked by such events as the establishment of the Nissen Wagon Co. in 1787; a visit from George Washington in 1791; the dedication of the Home Moravian Church in 1800; the first edition of Blum's Almanac in 1828; and the opening of the first bank in 1847. Cotton and wool manufacturing companies had been organized, and Salem by 1850 was a prosperous center of religion, learning and industry.

By an act of legislature in 1849, Forsyth County was created from Stokes County. The county seat was established one mile north of Salem Square. In 1851, again by act of legislature, the new county seat was named "Winston" in honor of Major Joseph Winston, Revolutionary War hero. Salem was incorporated in 1766; Winston in 1849.

Winston developed rapidly as an industrial center and market. The year 1872 saw the first tobacco auction and the opening of the first tobacco factory. In 1885, the Chamber Of Commerce of Winston and Salem was organized by far-sighted leaders who realized that together the two towns must build for the future. By the time of consolidation, Winston was already known for its textiles, hosiery, blankets, knit goods, tobacco products and tobacco market.

In 1913, by popular vote, Winston and Salem were consolidated as Winston Salem, the "Twin City." The new city took as its motto "Urbs Condita Adiuvando," meaning "A City Founded Upon Cooperation." This motto puts into modern phraseology the old Moravian concept of "Unitas Fratrum," "A Unity of Brethren."

Winston-Salem today is the leading industrial city of North Carolina and one of the South's leading industrial cities. The annual value of Forsyth County's manufactured products is over $1\frac{1}{2}$ billion.

The best of the old and the best of the new blend to make a progressive city still marked by a deep religious atmosphere, a love for music and arts, and a zeal for broad educational development. As did their fathers of yesterday, far-sighted citizens of today build always for the greater city of tomorrow.

Old Salem, Inc., 600 S. Main St., is headquarters for the restoration of the quaint Moravian village, founded in 1766. Here may be seen a scale model of the village as it looked in the early days, and current exhibits.

Wachovia Museum, corner S. Main and Academy Streets, has on display a large collection of Salem Antiquities, and objects belonging to early Winston. A part of the collection is housed in the old Boy's School, built in 1794 and restored in 1954. Boy's School is still under its original tile roof.

Salem Tavern, 800 S. Main St., erected in 1784, was the first brick building in Salem. George Washington visited the Tavern in 1791 during his Southern Tour. As a house museum, it now offers visitors a glimpse into one of the South's best known 18th century inns.

Lick-Boner House, 512 S. Liberty St., 1787, was the first project of the eleven completed Old Salem restorations in a long-range program. John Henry Boner, the North Carolina poet, was born in the house in 1845.

Home Moravian Church, S. Church St., erected in 1800, was the heart of the early Salem community, and is the center of the Moravian Church activities in the South. It is here that the opening scene of the Moravian early Easter morning service is held. This Easter Service, one of the most widely known religious services in America, has been held for 190 years, and attracts from 30 to 40 thousand visitors annually.

"God's Acre," or Moravian Graveyard, S. Church St., contains more than 3,000 graves, all having similar, flat markers to symbolize the brotherhood and equality of man. There are no family plots. The graveyard has been used by Moravian congregations in the city since 1771, and is the closing scene of the Moravian Easter Service, which attracts thousands of visitors from across the country.

Brother's House, 600-04 South Main St., 1769 and 1786, is the second oldest house still standing in Salem. It was here that the young boys of the community went to learn their trades. The building is now the Moravian Church Home.

Sister's House, Salem Square, 1786, housed the single sisters of early Salem. The house is now used as a dormitory for Salem College.

John Vogler House, 700 S. Main Street, built in 1819 by a silversmith and clockmaker is a refinement of the traditional architecture of 18th Century mid-European domestic architecture which was used in early Salem. It is now a third exhibit building of Old Salem, Inc., the restoration organization.

"Fourth House," 450 S. Main St., erected in 1767, is the oldest building still standing in Salem. It was the home of an early saddlemaker. The house was restored in 1940 by the Forsyth County Committee of Colonial Dames, and is now rented.

Belo House, 455 S. Main Street, handsome antebellum mansion with Corinthian columns and elaborate iron grille, was erected by Edward Belo in 1849. Belo conducted a store on the main floor of the building, and his dwelling was on the second story. The building was at one time used as an Inn. Now it belongs to the Moravian Church and is an apartment house for ladies.

Salem College and Academy, Salem Square, is one of the first Girls' Schools in the South, and is oldest in continuous operation. Established by the Moravians as a day school in 1772, it became a boarding school in 1802. The college buildings, on a 50-acre campus, are designed in the characteristic mid-European domestic architecture, prevalent in Salem.

Salem Square Market-Firehouse, 1803, has been reconstructed on its original foundations. The square has been restored to early appearance with white clapboard fence.

Hagan House, 1816, 230 S. Liberty Street, was home of Francis Fries Hagan.

Christoph Vogler House, 1797, 708 S. Main Street, home of village gunsmith, was the first brick house in the village.

Anna Catharina House, behind John Vogler House, 1772, was the home of Anna Catharina Ernst, heroine of the historical novel "Road to Salem."

Community Store, 1775, 626 S. Main Street, was trading center of the village and home of the storekeeper. It is now restored and open to the public with items for sale.

In the Downtown District

City Hall, N. Main St., is built on the original dividing line between Winston and Salem.

Forsyth County Courthouse is on the Courthouse Square in the center of the downtown district.

Reynolds Office Building, N. Main St. at 4th St., was North Carolina's tallest office building until the Wachovia Building was built.

A view of the main plaza area of Wake Forest University as seen through an arch of the Reynolda Hall. In the center is Wait Chapel. It is flanked by dormitories and classrooms.

The school is located in a new, modern plant housing over 3,600 students. It moved to its new campus during the summer of 1956.

The North Carolina School of the Arts opened in September, 1965, on the campus of the former Gray High School. It provides instruction in dance, music and drama for 600 talented high school and college students from North Carolina and many other states.

City Government

Winston-Salem has the council-manager type of city government. The city is incorporated, operating at present upon a charter codified and revised in 1927, with amendments made since. The city is divided into eight wards, with one alderman being elected biennially from each ward, making the governing body of the city a board of aldermen of eight plus the mayor. The Board of Aldermen appoints the city manager.

County Government

Five commissioners, elected for overlapping terms make up a board of commissioners who serve as the governing body of Forsyth County.

The county is divided into twelve townships and 50 precincts. All qualified voters of North Carolina who have lived in North Carolina for one year and in any voting precinct of Forsyth County for four months are eligible to vote in county elections.

Recreational Facilities

Fifty parks and playgrounds, have athletic fields, picnic areas, and special amusement features. The largest park is Reynolds, one of the South's finest municipal recreational centers. The city has an average of more than ten acres of playground for each public school.

A STATEMENT OF ADVERTISING PRINCIPLES

1. Good Advertising ~ aims to inform the consumer and help him to buy more intelligently.

2. Good Advertising ~ tells the truth, avoiding misstatement of facts as well as possible deception through implication or omission. It makes no claims which cannot be met in full and without further qualification. It uses only testimonials of competent witnesses.

3. Good Advertising ~ conforms to the generally accepted standards of good taste. It seeks public acceptance on the basis of the merits of the product or service advertised rather than by the disparagement of competing goods. It tries to avoid practices that are offensive or annoying.

4. Good Advertising ~ recognizes both its economic responsibility to help reduce distribution costs and its social responsibility in serving the public interest.

CAUTION . . . .

Pay no money in advance to itinerant Directory canvassers. We are led to mention this from the fact that certain parties have been fraudulently using our publications as specimens, and by that means collecting money in advance. Before signing an order, see that it has the name of the publisher of this City Directory printed thereon. We ask no payment until the work is delivered, and our solicitors have strict orders not to take advance payment for either advertising or subscriptions.

SOLVE glass washing problems with a webber

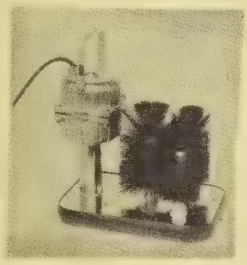
- Saves Time and Labor
- Stainless Steel Construction
- Assures Clean, Sanitary Glasses

glass and mug scrubber

FOR SINK-BACK OR IN-SINK INSTALLATIONS

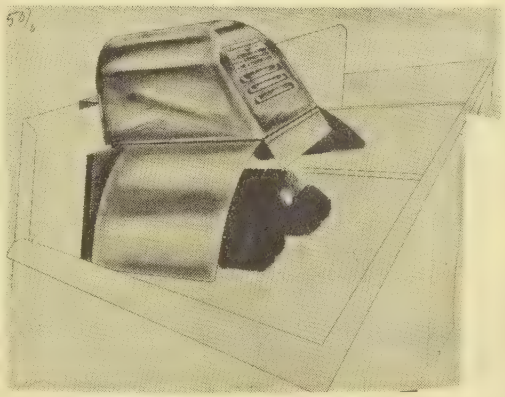
Model 603 scrubs all glass sizes and thickness from 2 oz. whiskey to 16 oz. beer glasses and even delicate stemware.

the better way from webber



Simple to operate – place in sink with water and use! Designed to operate partially submerged in water this unique glasswasher is equipped with a 1/3 HP submersible electric motor requiring 110-115 volts 11.5 amperes, 60 Hz alternating current. Motor must be operated at least half submerged in water as the water and detergents serve to cool and lubricate the drive mechanism which is enclosed in a stainless steel base. Motor is corrosion resistant.

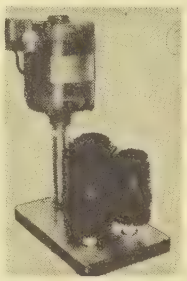
Long-life brushes spin smoothly at ideal cleaning and polishing speed cleaning inside and outside of glasses and mugs.



SINK BACK MODEL 603

Webber Glasswasher SINK Model 603 is the only heavy duty glasswasher adaptable to every sink and requires no expensive installation charges. Constructed of stainless steel, Model 603 retains its shiny, bright appearance while giving years of continuous performance. All moving parts are corrosion resistant and will withstand the strongest washing compounds. Brushes are of the long-life nylon that retain their stiffness and resiliency under heavy use. Brush shafts are powered by Webber's unique "W" drive that provides smooth, quiet operation.

Easily installed Model 603 is supported by a bracket that is placed over splash back of sink. Simply plug into any 110-115 Volt 60 Hz outlet, flip switch or depress on and off foot control and glasswasher is ready for operation.



IN SINK MODEL 103

Efficient – economical – easy to operate, this IN-SINK glasswasher is the answer to many glasswashing problems. Fast in-sink installation – place in water, plug in and use. The heavy duty 1/4 HP motor operates on 110-115 volt – 60 Hz current and reaches top RPM immediately. The motor is completely enclosed and resists all corrosion and washing compounds.

Brushes are long-life nylon and give thorough scrubbing to remove lipsticks, greases and coating films – cleans and polishes inside and outside of all shapes and size glasses or mugs.

The Model 103 is excellent for bars, cocktail lounges, clubs, soda fountains, motels, hotels, pizza parlors, hospitals, schools or anywhere glasses or mugs are used.

CAUTION . . . .

Pay no money in advance to itinerant Directory Canvassers. We are led to mention this from the fact that certain parties have been fraudulently using our publications as specimens, and by that means collecting money in advance. Before signing an order, see that it has the name of the publisher of this City Directory printed thereon. We ask no payment until the work is delivered, and our solicitors have strict orders not to take advance payment for either advertising or subscriptions.

NORTH CAROLINA'S MOST COMPREHENSIVE REAL ESTATE COURSE

● Accredited by the North Carolina Real Estate Licensing Board ●

AMERICAN REALTY INSTITUTE, Inc. presents a comprehensive real estate course specifically designed:

(1) To help the consumer learn how to select, finance and maintain real property either for a home or for investment purposes, and

(2) To qualify students to meet all eligibility requirements for taking the N.C. Broker's Exam or Salesman's Exam (the course is accredited by the North Carolina Real Estate Licensing Board) and to provide basic working tools for the student who is preparing himself for a career in the field of real estate, and

(3) To give practical information for professional growth to the person already engaged in the real estate business, and

(4) To lay the foundations for advanced specialized real estate courses.

TOPICAL OUTLINE. The 72-hour course of study covers all of the fundamental principles and practices of real estate, including:

- North Carolina real property law and licensing laws
- The fundamentals of home ownership
- Construction
- Real estate investment guidelines
- Federal income taxation of real estate
- Brokerage
- Realty office layout, design, and policies
- Successful listing and sales techniques
- Property evaluation
- Advertising techniques
- Property management
- Landlord-Tenant law
- Real estate mathematics
- Title closing and evidences of title

FACULTY. The lectures will be delivered by two professionals who are directly involved in real estate transactions on a day-to-day basis -- Daniel L. Taylor, J.D., a Winston-Salem Attorney, and Ruby F. Taylor, Ph.D., a Winston-Salem Realtor.

LOCATION. Classroom on First Floor, First Center Building, 2000 West First Street Winston-Salem, North Carolina

TIME. Fall Term First Week in September
Spring Term, First Week in March
Classes meet on Tuesday and Thursday evenings of each week from 7:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.

Do your employers furnish you with the latest edition of the City Directory

You need it at your elbow at all times, to protect your company from forgers and bad-check artists. A few questions, checked against City Directory information, will trip them at once. Intelligent use of the City Directory for this purpose has saved thousands of dollars and helped make some cities "too sharp" for bad-check "operators."

CAUTION . . . .

Pay no money in advance to itinerant Directory canvassers. We are led to mention this from the fact that certain parties have been fraudulently using our publications as specimens, and by that means collecting money in advance. Before signing an order, see that it has the name of the publisher of this City Directory printed thereon. We ask no payment until the work is delivered, and our solicitors have strict orders not to take advance payment for either advertising or subscriptions.

Out of Sight--Out of Mind

☆ Out of Business ☆

The importance of keeping firm and product names in the public eye is recognized by all business men. It is astonishing to see how a firm or product, however meritorious, will slip into the limbo of the forgotten if not persistently advertised.

The City Directory is the natural medium for keeping a business or product name in the spotlight. Insist on being well represented in its pages.

Out of Sight--Out of Mind

☆ Out of Business ☆

The importance of keeping firm and product names in the public eye is recognized by all business men. It is astonishing to see how a firm or product, however meritorious, will slip into the limbo of the forgotten if not persistently advertised.

The City Directory is the natural medium for keeping a business or product name in the spotlight. Insist on being well represented in its pages.

Typical Questions

Your City Directory
Will Answer
